Race Regulations

1. The event will be conducted in accordance with relevant laws and ordinances and the various regulations.
2. The organizers will not be liable for any of the following:
 - (1) Injuries, illness or other accidents
 - (2) Theft, loss and/or damage to personal property
 - (3) Delay in arriving or inability to participate due to public transportation accidents, delays, etc.
3. In order to safely conduct the event, the organizers will impose restrictions at the event and along the course, etc.
4. Participants shall follow the instructions of the organizers, officers and staff regarding the event. Failure to obey instructions may result in disqualification.
5. Participants may be disqualified if the organizers consider their clothes to be an impediment to the operation of the event, such as being indecent or posing a danger or obstruction to other runners.
6. Drinking or receiving alcoholic beverages before the start or while running is prohibited and will result in disqualification. Participants determined to be under the influence of alcohol will be disqualified.
7. Participants shall comply with public manners and the event rules.
8. Participants shall bring their health insurance card (or a photocopy) to the event.
9. Unmanned aerial vehicles such as multirotors, drones and radio control helicopters shall not be flown over the venue on the day of the event, regardless of the purpose, including aerial photography.
10. The organizers will purchase a sports accident insurance policy for the duration of the event.
11. The chief judge or doctor may stop a participant from continuing if they determine the participant is unable to continue the race due to illness, injury, etc. In such a case, the participant shall follow the chief judge or doctor's instructions.
12. Participants who become unable to continue the race without assistance from medical staff (i.e., the use of an I.V. drip or wheelchair) will be deemed to have retired from the race and disqualified. The on-site doctor and medical staff will make the final determination regarding a participant's ability to continue the race, and their instructions shall be followed. Further, the doctor or medical staff may confirm with the runner whether they intend to retire (be disqualified) before commencing medical treatment.
13. On the day of the event, participants may not come by car, motorcycle, or bicycle, including drop-off and pick-up (there is no parking lot or bicycle parking lot).
14. Participants may have an escort runner, depending on the degree of their disability. The escort runner's participation will be free of charge, but the time of the escort runner will not be recorded (except where the escort runner has entered the event).
15. Participants shall be responsible for managing their valuables and luggage in order to prevent theft/picking up the wrong bag.
16. The organizers shall own the rights to publish information and images, including videos, photographs, articles, records, location information and the name, age and address (prefecture and municipality) of participants on television, in newspapers and magazines, on the Internet, etc.
17. The organizers will comply with the Act on the Protection of Personal Information and related laws and regulations, and handle personal information as follows, based on the organizers' personal information protection policy:
 - (1) Personal information handled:
Name, sex, date of birth, age, address, telephone number, mobile telephone number, email address, nationality, emergency contact's name, telephone number and relationship to the participant, records, affiliation, location information, clinical information, information recorded in a Shintai Shogaisha Techo (Certificate of the Physically Disabled), etc.
 - (2) Purposes of use:
For the purpose of improving services and safety for the participants of the event, sending participation information / participation prizes, notification of records, notification of related information, sponsorship of the event, cooperation, provision of information from related organizations, announcement of records (official event site, for ranking, etc.), publication of charity donors, insurance, medical treatment, etc.
 - (3) Provision to third parties:
Personal information will be provided to third parties in the following circumstances;
 - When provision to related businesses and contractors within the scope of operating the event is necessary;
 - When the Minato City Council of Social Welfare requests donor information for the purpose of donating charity donations;
 - When provision is requested by an insurance company for the purpose of applying for insurance;
 - When information related to medical examinations is used for academic purposes;
 - When information related to records is to be published on television, in newspapers and magazines, on the Internet, etc.

Terms of Application

- * Please read and agree to the following terms before applying for registration.
1. Change of race category, cancellation, transfer of rights or change of name due to a participant's personal circumstances will not be allowed after participation has been confirmed.
 2. In principle, there will be no refund of participation fees (including charity donations) after they have been paid, including in circumstances where the event is downsized or canceled due to an earthquake, flood, snow, incident, accident, illness, etc. However, if the event is canceled due to an increase in the spread of COVID-19, the participation fees for the half marathon and the fun run will be partially refunded depending on the state of the event budget. Instead of a cash refund, QUO Cards will be sent as the refund method. Please be aware that refunds will not be given if the decision is made to cancel the event on or after Friday, November 11, 2022. In either case, donations will be returned in full via QUO Cards (there may be a delay in sending these depending on the security of the QUO Cards).
 3. Participants shall be aware of their health, including heart disease and other illnesses, such as by having a physical examination by a doctor in advance, and train sufficiently before participating in the event. Entrants shall participate in the event at their own risk with regard to injury, illness, accidents, etc.
 4. Participants may be stopped during the event to allow emergency vehicles to pass, or be asked to give emergency vehicles priority passage. Further, the organizers may stop the event if they determine that there is a hindrance to its continuance. Participants shall follow the organizers' instructions with regard to safety management and the operation of the event.
 5. If a participant suffers illness or injury during the event, the participant shall receive first aid from the organizers.
 6. Participants will be compensated for any accidents or injuries arising during the event within the scope of the coverage of the insurance policy purchased by the organizers. The organizers will provide first aid to a participant's injury or illness, but will not have any liability for such, and participants shall not make any claims for compensation against the organizers.
 7. When registering for the event, participants shall obtain permission to participate in the event from their parents, family or guardians if the participant is a minor, or from their teammates if registering as the representative of a team.
 8. Fraudulent applications regarding age, sex, records, etc., or participation by a person other than the registrant (i.e., participating on behalf of another person) will not be allowed. If such dishonesty is discovered, the organizers' decision shall be followed regarding the revocation of participation and awards, and disqualification from future participation, etc.. Further, the organizers shall not have any liability for providing first aid or refunds to fraudulent applicants or alternate runners.
 9. Registrants may be unable to apply due to the device, operating system or Internet browser they use. The organizers shall not be liable for any delayed applications caused by Internet service failures, etc.
 10. If notification regarding the results of the entry lottery is not received due to a problem with the email address used for registration, the notification will not be resent. The organizers will not be liable for the non-payment of participation fees due to the notification email not being received or being overlooked.
 11. The videos, photographs, articles and records of the event (including the personal information of participants such as their name, age, sex, record and image) may be reported, published or used in newspapers, on television, in magazines, on the Internet, in brochures, etc. The organizers will hold the rights to publish and use such information.
 12. The handling of participants' personal information shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Race Regulations.
 13. Participants shall comply with the above Terms of Application as well as the organizers' separately defined Special Application Terms and Race Regulations (in case of discrepancy, the Race Regulations shall prevail).

【Half Marathon】

- People with disabilities (who are 18 years of age or older and can finish within the time limit on the day of the event) who would have trouble running alone are allowed to have an escort runner (guide dogs are not allowed as escorts). The escort runner's participation fee is free, but the escort runner's time will not be recorded unless the escort runner also registers as a participant.
Participation in wheelchairs is not permitted.

【Fun Run】

- People who would have trouble running alone are allowed to have an escort runner (guide dogs are not allowed as escorts).
- Participation using regular wheelchairs and baby strollers is also allowed, however, racing wheelchairs are not allowed.

- * Participants must agree to the following application terms before applying.
 - * These are subject to change depending on the status of COVID-19 infections in the future.
1. In addition to the provision of personal information for purposes related to the running of the event, the organizers may provide personal information to third parties such as health centers and medical institutions who require the information for the purpose of COVID-19 prevention measures.
 2. In order to ensure the safety of the other participants, those participants who do not obey the instructions given by the organizers regarding COVID-19 measures may have their entry canceled, be stopped mid-race, and asked to wait at the venue or to leave the venue.
 3. The organizers will retain personal information concerning health management and infection prevention obtained from the "Physical Condition Management Application" or "Physical Condition Management Check Sheet," etc. for one month after the event.
 4. If you develop COVID-19 within 14 days of the end of the competition, please contact the organizer immediately and at the same time report the presence or absence of close contacts.
 5. If, after the competition, an infected person comes forward from among the participants or those involved in the competition, we may ask you to cooperate with an interview survey at a health center.
 6. Please refrain from participating if any of the following apply:

 - (2) You are severely fatigued or have difficulty breathing
 - (3) You have symptoms such as a cough, phlegm, or a sore throat
 - (4) Your sense of taste or smell feels abnormal
 - (5) A family member, cohabitant, or close acquaintance is suspected to be infected
 - (6) You have an underlying illness and are concerned about your physical condition
 - (7) Within the previous 14 days you have traveled to a country or region the government has declared as being subject to entry restrictions or requiring a quarantine period after entry, or you have been in close contact with a resident of or someone who has traveled to such an area.
 7. Participant's place of residence
Please refrain from participating if the national government has declared a state of emergency over your place of residence within the 14 days prior to the event.
 8. Participants and their families and cohabitants
 - (1) Please refrain from participating if you or a family member or cohabitant have visited a hospital with a fever or cold symptoms within the 14 days prior to the event.
 - (2) Please refrain from participating if you or a family member or cohabitant have visited an area or country where COVID-19 is spreading within the 14 days prior to the event.
 9. Please wear a mask before the start and after the finish of the event. Also, please wash your hands and disinfect your hands with alcohol, etc. frequently while at the venue, and refrain from conversation.
 10. Please maintain an appropriate distance from other participants and organizing staff (except when guiding or assisting persons with disabilities).
 11. Spectating at the venue and along the course and roadside is allowed, but please refrain from talking or cheering in a loud voice.
 12. Please follow the other measures decided by the organizers to prevent infection and the organizers' instructions on the day of the event.
 13. Participants must enter or fill in the "Physical Condition Management Application" or "Physical Condition Management Check Sheet" designated by the organizer within the 14 days prior to the day of the event, and present or submit this on the day of the event. In addition, participants may be asked to present a vaccination certificate (three vaccinations) or proof of a negative PCR test or antigen test in the future, depending on the status of the spread of COVID-19 infections.
 14. The organizer will not be liable should a participant become infected (this is not covered by the accident insurance purchased by the organizer).
